

Lara Jonasdottir

Education

Horticulture with a focus on Floristry, Horticultural College, Iceland (2002-2004)

Foundation Course in Herbal Medicine, College of Phytotherapy, England (2004-2005)

Bachelor of Science in Herbal Medicine, University of Westminster, London, England (2005-2008)

Postgraduate Diploma in Clinical Education, University of Ireland, Galway (NUIG) (now known as University of Galway) (2016-2017)

Master's Degree in Clinical Education (MSc), University of Ireland, Galway (NUIG) (now known as University of Galway) (2018-2019)

Also various other additional educational programs and continuous professional development workshops/programs. For more information, visit www.holisticherbalcare.com.

Work Experience:

Herbal Medicine Clinic, Dublin (both at Westland Row and later Botanic Health, Drumcondra) (2008-2016)

Herbal Medicine Clinic, Dr. Clare's Clinic and Apothecary (formerly known as Health and Herbs), 9 Sea Road, Galway, Ireland (2014 - present)

Clinical education in private clinics and as part of Heartwood (2014 - present)

Clinical Tutor for Heartwood training clinics, Heartwood (Introductory and Professional level Herbal Medicine Course), England (primarily an online program) (2020 - present)

Also a variety of other professional experiences.

For further details, please visit www.holisticherbalcare.com.